Post Pardon me while I drag up my soapbox and megaphone..
Yesterday the Demoncratic leadership at the capital, meaning Pelosi and Schumer had themselves a little press conference that should scare the shyt out of every red blooded freedom loving American Patriot in the nation. They say they believe this election is a "mandate to fundamentally change this country" into the socialist democracy they want to impose on us All. Firstly, you should know that "socialist democracy" are just buzzwords for communism. That's right, COMMUNISM! "This election is a MANDATE to fundamentally change this country." Really??? Yesterday this was said by the Leaders of the Demoncratic Party BEFORE the election has even been certified! The media machine in lock step with them. Before even one vote has been recounted or before one issue with this election has been checked. There is a mountain of evidence being gathered, hell,, I have enough on my page to create doubt as to the authenticity of this election and I'm a nobody patriot who wants to look and see what evidence is out there for fraud. Demoncratic leadership wants to take the power of one vote for each person away from you! And run with millions of fraudulent mail in ballots. Pack after pack after pack after packs after pack of votes streaming into election polling places that swing the vote for their candidate fraudulently. This IS DEMOCRATIC SOCIALISM! Stand Tall Patriots! Be heard! Be the squeaky wheel for a change. Get off your hands. Make your views known. Even if it's just one person you turn around you've already doubled the amount of Patriots standing with us. There's a YouTube video called "stop the steal" you're gonna want to see and share. Go check it out. And share it for heavens sake.
